

wow!
43 Confirm the rumor that Wakkanai ramen is really delicious.

Crinkly noodles in a rich soup based on local ingredients. Simple yet profoundly delicious, Wakkanai ramen certainly deserves the attention it now receives from gourmet magazines and the like.

■ Ramen
© Establishments where it can be eaten
MAP pp.42/43

wow!
44 Come and eat Wakkanai's soul food, Chaamen.

Chinese noodles boiled and then fried, covered with a thick sauce containing seafood and vegetables. You must try the soul food that's loved by the locals.

■ Chaamen
© Establishments where it can be eaten
MAP pp.42/43

wow!
45 Discover the delicious taste of the "phantom" seaweed, ginkgo grass.

Only found in cold northern waters, this rare seaweed is harvested between January and March. The subtle, refined aroma of the sea and slightly crunchy texture is addictive.

■ Ginkgo grass
© Establishments where it can be eaten
MAP pp.42/43

wow!
46 Get up close to nature at Rishiri-Rebun-Sarobetsu National Park.

Toyotomi: Sarobetsu Flower Garden

This was designated the northernmost national park in Japan in 1974, and covers the one city and five towns of Wakkanai, Rishiri, Rishiri Fuji, Rebun, Toyotomi, and Horonobe. Come see, eat, and try new things to enjoy nature with all five senses on your trip through the area.

Rebun: Rebun edelweiss

Rishiri Island: Otatomari Marsh

Horonobe: Tonakai Reindeer Ranch

ACCESS

- Rishiri-Rishiri Fuji
Approx. 1 hour 40 min. by Ferry from Wakkanai Port
- Rebun
Approx. 1 hour 55 min. by Ferry from Wakkanai Port
- Toyotomi
40 min. by Car from JR Wakkanai Station,
50 min. by Train
- Horonobe
55 min. by Car from JR Wakkanai Station,
1 hour by Train

Rishiri-Rebun-Sarobetsu National Park Area

